Brothers and Sisters,

The Carpenters International Training Fund (CITF) has made a COVID-19 online training class available. This class educates members on how to protect themselves and their co-workers from getting and spreading Coronavirus. The course will familiarize you with the OSHA Guidance for Preparing Workplaces for COVID-19. Topics covered in the training include:

- How A COVID-19 Outbreak Can Affect Workplaces
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Safe Work Practices
- And more . . .

Register at Carpenters.org:

Getting Registered

1. Go to <https://auth.carpenters.org/login>
2. Click the FIRST TIME? REGISTER HERE! button.
3. Enter your UBC number and the other information requested.
4. Go to the email address you registered under and find the email titled "UBC: New account verification" if you have not received it within 15 minutes check your junk mail and/or try to register again.
5. Fill in your profile information and click save.

Follow the steps below to access the CITF Online Learning Center and complete the training:

Accessing UBC's Online Trainings:

1. Go to <https://www.carpenters.org/>
2. In the upper right corner, hover over "resource hub". There will be a drop down.
3. Click on "For our Members".
4. Scroll down to the brown section and click on "Access to the CITF Online Learning Center" to expand the box.
5. Click on "Click Here" to register for classes online.
