Los Angeles County Supervisor Names EST Dan Langford to the LA County Economic Resiliency Task Force

Los Angeles County Supervisor Janice Hahn has appointed 39 local business and cultural leaders to the LA County Economic Resiliency Task Force to use their experience and expertise to guide LA County's safe reopening amid the COVID-19 pandemic. Southwest Regional Council of Carpenters, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Dan Langford is named to the Labor working group.

The mission of the Task Force is the development of actionable recommendations for the County to leverage public-private partnerships to improve the economy, create jobs, and return to full employment.

The task force includes 13 representatives from different sectors of LA County's economy. Each one of those 13 task force members will chair working groups focused on reopening and revitalizing their specific sector or industry. The expectation of the Task Force is the development of actionable recommendations based on best practices for phased recovery of LA County's economy.

The Task Force meets weekly through July 14th, 2020
